Share this Page Exclusive: Scolari hopes Kaka stays at Milan The Brazilian has missed out on a place in the starting XI for the Champions League tie against Lyon as his team prepared to face Sevilla in the Uefa Super Cup in Lisbon on Saturday. Jorge Jesus' side also face Manchester United in the second game of their pre-season tour. Napoli top the Serie A with 23 points from 11 games. "Kaka always has the chance to prove he is a great player," the former Brazil, AC Milan and Corinthians captain told Sky Sport Italia. "He is a great player. "We talked a lot about Kaka in the dressing room and he had a positive influence. I'm hopeful that he will stay at Milan." Juventus' season ended with a painful 5-3 aggregate defeat by Bayern Munich in the Champions League semi-final. "They're a big side, but we've been talking about that for months," the former Paris St-Germain, Real Madrid and Manchester United midfielder added. "Sometimes, you have to end your season out in the best way possible. But this season we finished the way we should have finished." Antonio Conte's players return to pre-season training on Sunday and are full of the joy of not having to work on domestic competition. "It was a great pleasure to have a break from the league, where I feel we deserved to finish above Napoli. "The Champions League is what we want." Conte said: "I think Juventus have a good pre-season and they will be very ready for the start of the Serie A." The Italian missed the training camp in Barcelona due to an ankle problem. "I think that [Juve boss] Massimiliano Allegri and I will have a great summer," he said. ba244e880a
